Learning Plan going forward

Dr. Tencza stated that with the incidence of positive cases in both the town and the schools continues to rise; Leicester Public Schools will need to shift its instructional model. In order to make this an orderly transition, it has been decided to move learning to fully remote on Monday, December 14, 2020 until Wednesday, December 23, 2020. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday will be a full day synchronous day of school. Wednesday will continue to be a half-day synchronous and half-day asynchronous of school. The School Committee may choose to revisit the learning model in late December.

Under discussion, many expressed their thoughts and concerns.

Member Tom Lauder made a motion support the move to full remote learning starting on December 14, 2020. Member Stella Richard made a second.
